

Oslo

Learning through play

Play is a crucial part of every child's life. Children learn when they play with others. During play, they develop their language skills, make friends and learn to respect one another. Through trial and error, exploration, repetition and shared activities, children learn how the world works. At kindergarten, we encourage and facilitate play that is good for children's development from their earliest days.

Apply for a kindergarten place –
read more at oslo.kommune.no/barnehage/

